April 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Though you may feel that time is standing still and that winter will never move out, church time is moving. The moon is cycling and the earth revolving, and thus we have been in Lent for nearly a month as we make our way toward Easter. Though it's freezing right now, the first place Lent takes us is into the desert. Hot! Warm! Sunny! We go into the desert, of course, to follow Jesus. Scripture tells us that the first thing Jesus did after he was baptized was go into the desert where he fasted for forty days and then he was tested to the depths of his weary and hungry soul. It's interesting that the first tremendous test of his call and his faith came to him through his body. Through hunger, pain, loneliness, cold, and heat, Jesus was pushed to the limit about what he really believed. Jesus in the desert is the first adult image that we have of the incarnation: of God in human flesh struggling with the body and with faith.

At First Church, we started our Lenten journey with the imposition of ashes. This reminds us that these bodies of ours are but dust of the earth. We engage our bodies in order to move more deeply into faith. On Maundy Thursday, there will be washing of hands as we come together to remember that last night Jesus shared with his disciples. Of course, we wash hands based upon the story of Jesus washing the disciples' feet. Like many modern people, we have become so uncomfortable with our bodies that we choose to wash hands instead, believing that even in hands, we can learn about incarnation.

This physical engagement in our faith reminds us that our bodies are necessary to faith no matter how much we wish they were different shapes, had better parts, or were much younger. Seeing our bodies as connected to this incarnate God reminds us of how much we ignore or even disregard our bodies, often pummeling them into submission as if they were machines to do our bidding. We forget that they are gifts of incarnation, places where the Holy Spirit dwells. Remembering the incarnation through our own bodies is a wonderful practice of faith during Lent. As Barbara Brown Taylor reminds us in her book, An Altar in the World, "...our bodies remain God's best way of getting to us."

This idea of our bodies as God's pathway to us is both an individual reality and a communal one. Look at Communion. There we are, eating and drinking, feeding our bodies with the manna of Christ. We do this in community, in Communion and in-carnation. Here is one of the most profound ways that we know our faith is not an act of the individual will alone or a celebration of the purely physical. Here is the great mystery border land between body and soul where we are met by God. We may not be able to explain it, but we can feel the bread in our hands and taste its coarseness; we can lift the cup and feel the juice's sweetness on our tongues. In our bodies lives Christ's body. This is true for you as well as your neighbor.

This year during Lent, I invite us to practice being aware of our bodies as God's sacred gifts. Take time to ponder the many stories in scripture where Jesus touches, heals, lifts up, feeds, and brings to life the bodies of those who came to him. This daily practice doesn't require any special gear, degrees, or gym memberships. As God lived in Christ, becoming flesh and blood, so God dwells in us: flesh and blood. How cool is that?! Barbara Brown Taylor says this far better: "Why else did Jesus spend his last night on earth teaching his disciples to wash feet and share supper? With all the conceptual truths of the universe at his disposal, he did not give them something to think about together when he was gone. Instead, he gave them concrete things to do - specific ways of being together in their bodies - that would go on teaching them what they needed to know when he was no longer around to teach them himself..." The disciples were going to need something warm and near that they could bump into on a regular basis, something so real that they would not be able to intellectualize it and so essentially untidy that there was no way they could ever gain control over it. So Jesus gave them things they could get their hands on, things that would require them to get close enough to touch one another. In the case of the meal, he gave them things they could smell and taste and swallow. In the case of the feet, he gave them things to wash that were attached to real human beings, so that they could not bend over them without being drawn into one another's lives.

Peace is in you,

Pastor Kingsley

A list of needed items is on the desk in the church office, and I will also have some copies of the list in the sanctuary on Sunday. Thank you. Lori

April Moves Us from Lent to Easter

On March 22, I had the wonderful opportunity of observing and playing for a meeting of the Presbytery of the Hudson Valley. Pastors and elders came from the eighty-two churches in our presbytery. It was a day of conducting business and participating in a unique worship service based on the Taize model. The Taize Community was started by Brother Roger in Taize, France, and draws thousands yearly to worship, pray, and sing together in community. Our chancel was set with tables of different heights and many lit candles in votives, floating in vases, and on pillars. A long, purple cloth was draped over the Communion table and trailed down and out over the floor.

With the lights dimmed and all the candles flickering, the service began in silence. Slowly and quietly began the singing, which was accompanied by cello, organ, and piano. Then the volume became stronger as the chants were repeated over and over until they died away. After a chant, scripture was read and prayers were offered. It was a moving experience. During the prayers, opportunity was given to speak aloud a prayer concern for disasters, genocide, suffering, war, guidance, support for grieving, pain, and illness - in short, the whole of our human condition. Often on a Sunday, we glibly go through the service paying lip service to prayer; however, I was reminded of the need to delve deeper in our prayer lives, remembering the pain and suffering of all who cross our paths or who are brought to our consciousness.

I was renewed and revived to continue Lent with the reading of scripture and the spending of time in prayer. Many other Christians are beyond our walls and are doing the same thing. Join them and become part of the worldwide “worshiping throng” who are praying for one another. We can’t stop disasters, but we can pray for support and comfort and do what we can to alleviate pain and loss.

Lent IV and V begin our April Sundays, followed by Palm Sunday and the start of Holy Week, which leads us to Easter, or Resurrection Sunday as it is called by some. The choir will continue singing and offering music to support our Lenten journeys. I encourage you to attend a service during Holy Week; the services are short but meaningful times for reflection and remembering the suffering of Jesus, who has endured the cross for our sins.

Pray, read, and reflect on your life this Lenten season. It can be a powerful awakening to the need to change your own life and to reach out to others, our brothers and sisters, for we are all related.

ANNUAL SPRING RUMMAGE SALE
May 27 and 28, Friday and Saturday
(Mark your calendars now!)

It is that time again—with spring cleaning starting, I am sure many of you are putting away items to donate to the annual church rummage sale. It is possible that maybe your neighbors or co-workers have items they would like to donate as well. The chairperson for the event is again Glynnis Jorgensen. Glynnis would be grateful to anyone who can help with this annual event, as many hands are needed to set up during the week of the sale and also to clean up on Saturday, May 28, in the afternoon.

Remember, items can be brought in from the evening of Monday, May 23 through Thursday, May 26. We need saleable items, no junk. Please do not bring us things just because you don't want to throw them away. Items brought in should be CLEAN, not broken. We cannot sell chipped glassware, toys with missing parts, books without covers, items with missing pieces, or items with frayed electrical cords. We also cannot sell used computers or exercise equipment.

The better the items look, the more money we can get for them, so run those excess dishes through a wash cycle before you donate them, and try to pack items that are similar in the same boxes. This makes it so much easier for those setting up. In the past, we noticed that the jewelry table does well, so clear out that costume jewelry from your jewelry boxes. New and usable items are always welcome as well. We accept toys with all the parts and furniture that is still in good condition.

Watch the bulletin for any last minute information about the rummage sale. Please offer a few hours of your time to this good fundraiser for your church. All church members should be able to donate an hour or two to help. Don't wait for a personal invitation to come. Remember that All HELP is greatly appreciated, and you can bring a friend or coworker, too. Come out and share this fellowship with other church members.

Thank you again.

VOLUNTEERS WILL BE NEEDED TO HELP WITH SET-UP, SALE & CLEAN-UP

Please mark your calendars now for the week of May 23 – 28.

Hug Happenings

News of the Prayer Shawl Ministry (PSM)

Dear Members and Friends of the Church,

Each month, it seems that the shawl ministry receives more blessings than the month before, and this keeps our fingers working and sending out more “hugs” to those who need a little extra lovin’. We so appreciate your support of this endeavor.

Again, we thank those who not only donated yarn, but also those who gave monetary donations to our cause. I must admit, I had great fun going to the yarn suppliers and picking out some beautiful colors that our group will use to make great shawls, lap robes, and baby baptismal blankets. On a Sunday in March, we picked through the yarns (each choosing the ones that we liked) and went home to make our unique creations. I am afraid some of us have become “yarn junkies” and didn’t meet a skein we didn’t like or didn’t have an idea on how to use it. Thank you for keeping our fingers nimble.

We again received some wonderful thank-you notes that I would like to share with each of you.

- Dear Prayer Shawl Ladies, Thank you so much for the beautiful prayer shawl you gave my mother. She loved it! When she is not wearing it, it is on the bed next to her. I truly appreciate your thoughtfulness and so does Mom. Sincerely, Johnna (Rockland County, NY)
- Dear Ladies: A very belated but heartfelt thank-you for the beautiful prayer shawls you gave to me and my daughter when my mother passed away. We snuggle up on the couch with them and share stories of “Babci.” When I read the prayers and poems and think about all the work that went into these gifts, I get all choked up. I miss my mother so much, and there is a hole in my heart, but your shawls help to remind us of her love and affection she gave us when we were together. Thank you again. With love and friendship, Barbara (Arlington, VA)
- My Dear Friends, Wow!! How do you do it? Thank you so very much for the lovely and cozy shawl that I was given when I was so very ill and in the hospital. I believe the love and prayers you put into it helped me to get back on my feet. You are an amazing group and God has given you ladies a special talent. Thank you to everyone at the First Presbyterian Church for your kindness and your beautiful gift of love. I will always remember you. Love, Maureen K. (Warwick, NY)
- Dear Ministry of the Goshen Presbyterian Church, Thank you so very much for the prayer shawl. I feel so blessed to be on the receiving end of such a beautiful and loving gift. It makes me want to fight this cancer so much harder as I know you are all pulling for me. Please remember me in your prayers. Fondly, Sue A. (Warwick, NY)
- Hello dear hearts, I send you my deepest appreciation for the wonderful prayer shawl I received and for my stepdaughters at the loss of our love in our life. Your love and friendship has greatly helped me as I have entered into widowhood. With best wishes that you will continue this wonderful program. Sincerely, Dori A. (Washingtonville, NY)

So once again, as you see, our gifts are going far and wide, and our love is going with them. Joan Butensky recently took a number of lap robes to the residents at Valley View. I am sure they were appreciated by those who received them. I recently sent copies of our prayers and poems, along with our history, to a friend in Utah who thinks her church may want to start a ministry. Also, a collection was mailed off to a friend in Illinois for the same purpose.

Continue to remember us and the work we do, and if we can help you give a gift of love, let us know. We are working hard to keep the supply up and ready in case a need arrives.

God bless each of you.

Consider yourselves hugged & until next month...

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COMMITTEES

The Stone Soup Luncheon on March 6 was a wonderful success! We raised $316, which will be used for the expenses of the youth's trip to Nicaragua this summer. We wholeheartedly thank Greg and Deborah Spencer for making the soup for us again this year! Thanks also to the following people: those members of the Christian Education Committee who served the food and provided breads and baked goods, the confirmation class who set up the tables and took the money at the door, and all those who attended the event and enjoyed the soup!

The next event is the Breakfast with the Easter Bunny, which will take place on Saturday, April 16. Beth Laskoski, Jeanette McDowell, and John Bruno have been planning this event, which will undoubtedly be a fun time for those who attend it!

The Good Old Days in Goshen, New York

Anyone who has ever lived in Goshen, or even just visited, will be nostalgic about the perspective of life in Goshen at the beginning of the twentieth century. Back then, the First Presbyterian Church, with its surrounding park, was the focal point and defining structure of the Goshen "villagescape." Now, First Presbyterian Church in Goshen, in conjunction with The Bethlehem Art Gallery, will be giving you a chance to take home the original painting by renowned artist John Gould. What a wonderful slice of Goshen for your home, not to mention a great investment. Close your eyes and think of your time in Goshen. Whether you're a third-generation resident or a visitor, the image you'll see in your mind will be very similar to the one above, with perhaps a lot more traffic in the Village Square! Don't miss out on your chance to own your piece of Goshen history. Fill out the order form below and return to:
