Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Worshipping Together in Christ

“The conviction that the life of the Church is one, and...its worship, witness, and service are inseparable” introduces the “Directory for Worship” section of the PC(USA) Book of Order. In the following pages, we can read all about the theological underpinnings of Reformed worship, descriptions of orders of worship, and suggestions for conducting worship throughout the governing bodies of the church.

What do we do in worship? Why? What happens during that hour (and a little more) that we spend together on Sunday mornings or at a funeral or a wedding?

The answers to these questions may differ for each of us. However, there are common threads that bind us together in worship. “Christian worship joyfully ascribes all praise and honor, glory and power to the triune God. In worship, the people of God acknowledge God present in the world and in their lives. “In worship, believers respond to God in Jesus Christ, are transformed and renewed, and thus are equipped to go into the world for service to God’s people.” (W-1.1001)

We come to worship God, for God is worthy of our praise. The origin of the word worship is worthship. But God is also an actor in the service as we hear God’s voice through Scriptures, sermons, hymns, prayers, and each other. In her book Soul Feast: An Invitation to the Christian Spiritual Life, Marjorie J. Thompson reminds us that without the “rites and sacraments of public worship, there would be no Body of Christ.” When we come together for worship, we hear the stories of faith, we tell our children the faith history, we are joined in community through baptism, and we are nourished at the Lord’s Supper as a family. (Thompson, pp. 54-56)

As we share in the life of the church in worship, whether it be on Sunday mornings, at a funeral, at a wedding, or at another special celebration, we experience the Word of God in Jesus Christ. Each of us is also strengthened as a “communal witness of light, truth, and peace to overcome the corporate power” of the darkness that is in the world beyond the church. (Thompson, p. 57)

Individually, we proclaim our faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. In worship, we serve God in the power of the Holy Spirit in the name of Christ. In the community of the congregation, we respond to God and are nourished to go out in service to others.

Peace is in you,

Pastor Kingsley

The Power of Presence

I drove up to church to practice one Saturday morning. The temperature was a cold 62 degrees inside, the sanctuary was empty, and the organ was sluggish. Besides the chilliness, it was just not welcoming or inviting to sit there alone. It was then that I realized, once again, the power of a community of Christians gathered to worship.

Yes, it's so easy to roll over and say, "Nah, I'm not feeling it this morning." But on the other hand, someone may benefit just from your being present. Each of us has an energy, a presence to each persona. It's what makes others like or dislike us. But when we assemble on Sunday mornings with a smile, we stand and sing, bow to pray, and contribute to the corporate worship of the whole body of Christ. Your smile or kind word may brighten someone's week to come.

I also want to express my deep appreciation for those who minister to our fellowship at coffee hour. When you take the time to bake something, to make a platter of cheese and crackers, to set out something you have put part of yourself into—you are ministering!

The choir as a group participates in the music ministry by supporting the singing of hymns and by singing an anthem and introit each week. When you lift your voice in song, you become a part of the "worshipping throng." In the words of the welcoming song before the Sermon for Young Disciples:

*This, this is where children belong, welcomed as part of the worshipping throng.
Water, God's word, bread and cup, prayer, and song;

It's where you belong, too. Come and gather with us; live your ministry. Lift your voice in song or by speaking to someone. Let your presence minister to the needs of others and you will receive back much more in blessing.

Robert Clooney

MIDNIGHT RUN

The next Midnight Run will take place in April. For those that do not know what we do on a Midnight Run, let me tell you. First, Midnight Run is a large, not-for-profit organization in New York City and it feeds the homeless community there. On the night of the run, we load several cars with pre-made bagged lunches, coffee, soup, clothing, and toiletries. We leave this area at about 9:00 p.m. and go into New York City with a preset route to feed, clothe, and minister to those in need on the street. We work through the night to care for as many souls as possible. We have at times also done what is called a "Brunch Run," meaning we do the same thing during daytime hours, at one preset site.

We meet many grateful people on these runs. This is a safe event. We, and the organization at large, have never had an incident. If you would like to participate in any way (donate/prepare food, donate/sort used clothing, or drive/co-pilot during the run) or you would like more information on either a night or daytime run, please feel free to call the church office at 294-7991 to leave a message, or contact me via e-mail at monkeybusinesslori@gmail.com.

Hug Happenings...
News of the Prayer Shawl Ministry (PSM)

Happy Valentine's Day to all of our friends and families! Since February is the month during which we think of love and hugs, it is appropriate for us to thank all of you for helping us to give our hugs when needed. We also want to thank all of you for helping us keep our ministry going.

Several donations were given to the church shawl ministry for the purchase of supplies after the gracious Thanksgiving article appeared in the Times Herald Record. After a little research, I found an Internet site that has good yarn at a deep discount. I did a little magic and purchased close to forty skeins of yarn for around $120. This will make a good number of shawls, lap robes, and baby blankets to keep our supply boxes full. Every time we think we have "enough," we find a need and we have to get busy and fill our containers up again. Some of the recent shawls and lap robes are actually works of art. Each one is an original and the talents of our group are truly amazing.

I would like to thank Lori Baird for helping me in January to clear and clean up the room in which the shawls are stored. We think it will be much easier for everyone to locate gifts, gift bags, tissue paper, and the folders and prayers that fit the needs. If you stop by the church for one, our lovely church secretary, Pat, will direct you to the room. A list of what the colors represent is in the prayer box, so it will guide you on your gift choice. We will continue to take gently-used gift bags throughout the year, so please think of us to recycle them instead of putting them in the trash.

As it is February, we will again hold our annual yarn drive. Even though we have just purchased yarn, our active ladies will have used it up in no time and we will again be looking for more. It takes approximately 15 to 18 ounces of 4-ply acrylic yarn to make a good-sized shawl or lap robe (less for the baby blankets, of course). Since there are many yarn sales going on during this time of year, you can pick up several skeins inexpensively and place them in the basket in the narthex. If you don't crochet or knit, this is one way you can help send a hug from the church. We sincerely appreciate your support of this ministry.

Remember, we are always willing to teach anyone who wants to learn the art of crocheting. Watch for our meeting dates in the bulletin.

Again, thank you for your kind words and your support of this ministry.

Consider yourselves hugged,

Wendy Lee Paffenroth
PSM Secretary

Thanks for doing your share.

EXTRA MILE GIVING TREE

Our Extra Mile Giving Tree still stands in the Narthex and continues to be a great source of giving opportunity for many of our members and friends. Check out the Giving Tree located on the table by the front entrance and make your donation toward a special project of your choice. The Souper Bowl

FEBRUARY 6, 2011

On Super Bowl Sunday tens of millions of people will enjoy the warmth of friendship and the satisfaction of food and drink while watching the Super Bowl football game on television. Unfortunately, at the same time, countless other people will feel cold air against their flesh and hunger within their stomachs.

An effort has been born that seeks to transform the Super Bowl into a “Souper Bowl” for the needy. The “Souper Bowl” is a unique interdenominational effort to glorify God and care for our brothers and sisters in need.

Here’s how it works: please give one dollar & one canned good as you leave worship on the weekend of the Super Bowl.

The money and canned goods that are collected will go DIRECTLY to the Goshen Ecumenical Pantry. Congregations across the nation are then asked to call “Souper Bowl” headquarters with the results of their efforts so that totals can be promptly determined and released. (Please call John Strobl at 294-9004 with your totals; he will report the totals to the “Souper Bowl” headquarters for the Food Pantry).

Here’s some background: the effort began in a Columbia, SC church in 1990. That year $5,700 was raised in Columbia. Last year, 13,032 congregations across the nation raise $10,177,713.00. The Pantry raised $2052.21

Please join in partnership as we seek to Love the Lord our God...and Love our neighbors... in this simple yet significant way.

The Good Old Days in Goshen, New York

Anyone who has ever lived in Goshen, or even just visited, will be nostalgic about the perspective of life in Goshen at the beginning of the twentieth century. Back then, the First Presbyterian Church, with its surrounding park, was the focal point and defining structure of the Goshen “villagescape.” Now, First Presbyterian Church in Goshen, in conjunction with The Bethlehem Art Gallery, will be giving you a chance to take home the original painting by renowned artist John Gould. What a terrific Christmas gift, a wonderful slice of Goshen for your home, not to mention a great investment. Close your eyes and think of your time in Goshen. Whether you’re a third-generation resident or a visitor, the image you’ll see in your mind will be very similar to the one above, with perhaps a lot more traffic in the Village Square! Don’t miss out on your chance to own your piece of Goshen history. Fill out the order form below and return to:
