February 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the first month of this year, how blessed we are to be here to welcome it. The past year has been one of great difficulty for so many people, not only in Goshen, but across the country. From the economy, to the Iraq war and its conclusion, to political bipartisanship and blindness, to fearsome weather—we have all struggled to comprehend life's many changes and how our faith plays its role. Many of us look for signs of hope not only in the past but mostly in the future which is yet to come.

Hope is that spark which keeps us looking up, or, as Emily Dickenson wrote, hope "is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul and sings the tune without the words and never stops at all." Her image of hope is one with lightness, persistence, and song. With it, she conjures springtime and the return of hope after the hard winter. It is an image as well, I would say, of Christ's light in the world.

As we celebrate the Christmas season through Epiphany and Three Kings Day, we are continually reminded of the light of Christ in the world and how that glimmer, even in the coldest, darkest days, is enough to light our way and give us hope. No matter where you are or what your life may contain at the moment, hope persists. It is in the light of Christ that we experience the never-ending song of hope which we know by faith. This is where Isaiah's words speak so clearly to us: "Arise, shine! For your light has come and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you." (Isaiah 60:1)

The challenge we face as the followers of Christ in this year, and in all of our years, is how to live in that light. How do we let the light of Christ so shine in our lives that it guides our path and gives us hope, no matter what? We do it slowly, year by year, saying yes again and again until gradually, without our knowing it, that light flows out of all we do.

So may the light of Christ shine within you this year! May the hope of Christ sustain you and lead you amidst all of the successes and challenges which lie ahead in 2012. And may the glory of God be a grace unto you and even surprise you!

Peace in Christ,
Pastor Kingsley

FEBRUARY USHERS IN THE LENTEN SEASON

The church year moves us forward during February to Ash Wednesday on February 22, which marks the beginning of Lent. Lent is always observed as a season of repenting, of examining our lives, and of making changes in how we live. Because we are human, we all have our shortcomings; but each year, we are granted anew the opportunity to take a fresh look at ourselves and take positive steps to sink more deeply into our relationship with God and our neighbors.

Lenten themes will be reflected in the chancel choir’s anthems and in the hymns we sing together. This is always a special season of Sundays, culminating in Holy Week and Easter.

Our choir is always open to new members. Just come to rehearsal on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in the parlor; we’d love to welcome you.

Robert Clooney

HUG HAPPENINGS

Prayer Shawl Ministry News

The ministry ladies wish everyone a wonderful and blessed Valentine's Day, a day of hugs. Since it is February, we are holding our annual yarn drive. In the narthex, there is a big tub for donations of yarn. Don't be surprised if the yarn doesn't last long after you put it in there. You may see some wonderful women picking and choosing colors for their next projects. We are so very grateful for your donations to our cause. If you have a special need for a shawl and would like a specific color, you may buy us the yarn and we will make your gift—just try to give us advanced notice.

I was recently asked what the shawl colors stand for. Although the below color chart is not necessarily followed all the time, and often a shawl is made in a certain color for a specific need (such as pink for breast cancer), we make shawls in many colors and designs so you can find the one that is perfect for the person for whom you need it.

Your shawl colors represent:

- Ivory: goodness, purity, faith, safety
- Blue / Aqua: tranquility, healing, trust, balance
- Green / Teal: hope, peace, confidence, protection
- Purple / Violet: wisdom, creativity, dignity, grief
- Red / Pink / Raspberry: joy, friendship, love
- Peach / Orange: compassion, courage, goodness
- Yellow / Gold: wisdom, happiness, energy
- White: purity, innocence, strength, peace
- Tan / Brown / Black: dependableness, calmness, honesty
- Gray / Silver: determination, character, mindfulness

In the past month, many shawls have been delivered or mailed. One was sent to an older man in the Bronx who took a tumble and broke his teeth and both his arms. His sister requested a long shawl to wrap around him while he watches TV at night. He appreciated it so much that he even took it to his doctor's office to show the staff.

Another shawl was sent upstate to a young mother with two teenage children. She discovered just before Christmas that she has pancreatic cancer. She and her husband are coping, and the shawl is a comfort to them.

Another shawl will be sent to the lay minister of the Monticello Presbyterian Church. Her dear friend recently lost her husband quite suddenly, and she is not coping well. Being a widow herself, the lay minister believes the shawl might help her friend through this period, and their church, in turn, may also be interested in starting up a shawl ministry.

One red, white, and blue shawl was under a Christmas tree in Amity, New York. The nineteen-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, left for the Navy on December 14, and she wanted to leave a hug for her mother. We chose an anchor charm to sew into the corner of the shawl along with a cross, so that when Mom would see it, she would know it was a hug from not only us, but also from her daughter

...serving our country. I understand that when she opened it on Christmas morning, the entire family had tears in their eyes and just loved the thought and care that went into giving it to them.

Many of our shawls are given for illness, but they are also given for other events. I recently placed in the shawl room a large folder with many copies of the prayers, which can be taken as needed. Also in that room are three tubs of shawls, lap robes, and baby blankets (which we give for baptisms). Pat will direct you to the room if you have a need for one or more gifts. These are for all members of the church to take. We hope that we can help you bring some comfort or joy to someone who has touched your life.

Again, remember us when you shop. A few skeins of acrylic yarn go a long way toward making a hug for someone who needs it. Help us reach out and touch someone.

God bless all of you,

Wendy Paffenroth

PSM Secretary

Trinity Pocket Shawls

These small, soft, triangular crocheted items will be available in a basket in the narthex for anyone who wants one, wants to give one, or is interested in making some. Smaller than the pocket squares, they look like mini shawls and fit perfectly into a pocket. The three corners represent the Trinity.

A small, detachable prayer is tied to each pocket shawl. Some of the shawls will also have a small charm (either a cross, heart, or hope ribbon) attached, so look at them carefully to make sure you pick the one that is best for the receiver.

Thank you to Darlene Bartley, who designed the pocket shawls, and God bless our congregation for your support.

PLEASE PAY YOUR PER CAPITA ASSESSMENT FOR 2012

Every year, the Presbytery of the Hudson River charges every member church an assessment according to the current active membership. Our recorded active membership is currently 340 and our assessment per member (not per family) for 2012 is $29.25, which is a total of $9,945.00 to be taken from our operating budget. Please assist with this expense and write a check for your family assessment, if you haven't already done so, and either mail it to the church or place it in the Sunday offering plate. Thanks for doing your share.

THERE WILL BE AN ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE ON FEBRUARY 22 AT 7:00 P.M.

THE ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING IS SCHEDULED FOR FEBRUARY 26, 2012 FOLLOWING THE WORSHIP SERVICE.

WILL THE CHURCH SERVICE BE CANCELLED?

If you are not sure if church services will be cancelled due to inclement weather, listen to WHUD 100.7 for an announcement.

Emily (Conley) Enright writes about the simple need for a pair of socks among women and children in orphanages and shelters in Afghanistan.

Please place your old or new socks in the box or boxes you see around the church. Emily's mother, Susan Pierce, will mail our donations to Emily in time for Valentine's Day —
"Socks from the Heart"

Before I moved to Afghanistan to join my husband Tim on assignment there, I spent a lot of time thinking about the clothing that my new life would require. I stocked up on head scarves and long-sleeved shirts that would reach down nearly to my knees. I thought a great deal about the clothing that I would need to be as appropriate as possible when I ventured off of the base. After I was done going through and selecting what I did need from my closet, I got rid of a lot of what I did not need.

Now that I am in Afghanistan, I continue to spend a significant amount of time every morning thinking about clothing, but, unlike when I lived in the United States, I do not pay much attention to my colors matching or even to what is clean. Rather, I spend a significant amount of time each morning trying to decide how many pairs of socks I need to wear that day. I know, people usually only wear one pair of socks, but central heating is something that has yet to come to Afghanistan, and we live in the desert where houses are built so that they are nice and cool in the summer (with little thought given to how warm they are in the winter). As a result, I spend most of my days in ice-cold offices, bundled up in a down jacket and at least two, but sometimes three, pairs of socks on my feet. The tradition in Afghanistan is to take off your shoes before you enter a room with a carpet, and, as a result, I spend a lot of time walking around in just my socks on my feet.

Over the holiday season, I coordinated a distribution of toys to a number of local orphanages and women's shelters. After our visits to these locations, Tim and I and our other colleagues could not stop speaking about the women's and children's socks. Like me, my husband and colleagues usually put on several pairs of socks each day before they leave the house, and with all of the attention that we pay to our own feet, we could not help but notice that these women and children all had holes in their socks—if they had socks on at all. Socks are such simple things when you own a drawer full of them, but in a place like Afghanistan, they are a real luxury. To have a pair of socks that you do not have to share with anyone is a big deal, but to have a pair that is all your own without any holes is something of a miracle in much of this region.

When I think back to the preparations that I made in the days and weeks before I came to Afghanistan, if there is one thing that I could change, it would be to have cleaned out my sock drawer with a slightly different focus. Instead of dumping my old socks into a trash bag, I wish that I had dumped them into my suitcase to give them away to the women and children who really need them here. If you have a few minutes to look through your sock drawer to find socks that you just do not wear (preferably clean and without holes), please donate them to someone who could really use them. The socks that you donate do not need to be new or any particular color or size—they can just be something that you do not need or want anymore. Something that is old to you will be really special to a woman, man, boy, girl, or even a baby here in Herat, Afghanistan.

FUNDRAISING

Planning is underway for the 2012 Great American Weekend (GAW), which will take place from June 29 through July 1. We have contracted with a new vendor for the children's rides. Dave and Wendy Paffenroth have graciously taken on the responsibility of overseeing this part of our church's activities for GAW. Tyler Cox will once again chair the selling of French fries, while Geri Corey will oversee the antiques. I thank these people so much for assuming these responsibilities! They will be seeking many of our congregants to help, so please put the dates on your calendars and get ready to volunteer. The proceeds from GAW go into the general operating fund.

We are in the process of determining when another Tiffany Ball should be held. It is wonderful that Pat Green has volunteered to chair this event! The Tiffany Ball has been a terrific fundraiser for the work that needs to be done on our windows. So far, we have received bids from three companies who can preserve the Redfield Tiffany window. A committee of us are meeting to determine how to best use the nearly $65,000 that we have raised thus far. The Redfield window is THE priority at this point, as it is the most at risk.

I am truly grateful for all of the support that I have gotten from our church members and the community as I have worked to raise money for programs and, especially, our glorious Tiffany windows. At this time, I say farewell to you all as Jack and I are headed to Tennessee in the very near future to begin a new life there. We welcome being close to family once again! THANK YOU for helping me out so much while I was Fundraising chair! I will miss many wonderful people and this church tremendously!

Loretta Richner

The Souper Bowl

FEBRUARY 5, 2012

On Super Bowl Sunday tens of millions of people will enjoy the warmth of friendship and the satisfaction of food and drink while watching the Super Bowl football game on television. Unfortunately, at the same time, countless other people will feel cold air against their flesh and hunger within their stomachs.

An effort has been born that seeks to transform the Super Bowl into a “Souper Bowl” for the needy. The “Souper Bowl” is a unique interdenominational effort to glorify God and care for our brothers and sisters in need.

Here's how it works: please give one dollar & one canned good as you leave worship on the weekend of the Super Bowl.

Youth from your congregation will collect the money and canned goods and then send the contributions DIRECTLY to the Goshen Ecumenical Pantry. Congregations across the nation are then asked to call “Souper Bowl” headquarters with the results of their efforts so that totals can be promptly determined and released. (Congregations, please call John Strobl at 294-9004 with your totals; he will report the totals to the “Souper Bowl” headquarters for the Food Pantry).

Here's some background: the effort began in a Columbia, SC church in 1990. That year $5,700 was raised in Columbia. Last year 15,235 congregations across the nation raised $9,583,338.00. The Pantry raised $1,965.05.

Please join in partnership as we seek to Love the Lord our God...and Love our neighbors... in this simple yet significant way.
