February 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

John 6:41–51

Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.” They were saying, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?” Jesus answered them, “Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by God.’ Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

Reflection

The book Obama: An Intimate Portrait compiles three hundred photos taken by Pete Souza, the chief official White House photographer during Barack Obama’s presidency. Many of them depict historic moments: World Summit meetings, intense conversations in the Situation Room or Oval Office, addressing Congress. More surprising are intimate moments: Obama holding hands in prayer with family around the bed of a wounded soldier, playing in a snowstorm with his daughters, laughing with staff about colorful batik shirts worn by previous presidents, eating a green tea ice cream bar with two Japanese women, coaching Sasha’s basketball team, leaning down to hear an elderly mother in a wheelchair whose daughter died in the church bombing in Birmingham. Many depict his interactions with young children: crawling on the floor, getting “zapped” by a three-year-old dressed as Spiderman, and the well-known photo of five-year-old Jacob Philadelphia rubbing Obama’s head so he could feel for himself that the president’s hair felt like his own. We all treasure finding something familiar, or in common with, another human being. These photos “humanize” the person who once held the most powerful position in the most powerful country of the world.

One great mystery about Jesus is that he embodied the Divine as a fully human being. This repelled some. After Jesus said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven” others complained, “Who does this guy think he is? We know where he came from; we know his parents.” How could someone so familiar claim such eternal truths? It's not easy to understand the incarnation. Yet at the same time, I sense the Divine most in precisely the most human interactions—when compassionate, intimate moments of connection happen.

Music Notes

It's been a rough January, with pastor and secretary sick and the new year getting into high gear. Here's hoping that February will be a happy and healthy month! Lent begins on Wednesday, February 14—yes, Valentine's Day. There will be the customary evening service that day.

Music during Lent is properly less energetic than during other times of the year. While not a morose or gloomy time, Lent is a season of penitence, introspection, examination of conscience, and the resolve to do better. The Latin word "februare," where the word February comes from, means "to purify." It was the ancient Roman spring cleaning—a good analogy!

Nowadays we often hear dismissive commentary about Lent, usually something about "giving up candy." Well, candy is a great thing to give up, given the national epidemics of obesity and diabetes. However, doing something positive is also a proper way to observe the season. Give up the candy of gossip, of social media, of any emotional crutches we come to rely on. Replace it all with the nourishing food of supportiveness, positivity, self-reliance, faith, generosity, empathy. Come to church. Join the choir!

And as we sing the Lenten songs this year, think of the coming miracle of Easter, and remember that while Lent lasts for forty days (more or less), Easter season lasts for fifty. Joy always wins. That maxim guides me as a church musician, and I hope it helps you in the coming weeks.

As always, I'm grateful to the choir and handbell choir for their faithful and excellent work.

There will be a concert on Sunday, March 18, featuring our own Tower Trio—Mary Lee Farris, Bill Powers, and yours truly. I hope you can come!

Jonathan

From the Worship and Music Committee...

The Worship and Music Committee will host a musical presentation by the Tower Trio... Jonathan Hall, Mary Lee Farris, and Bill Powers. This will take place on March 18, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. in the sanctuary with a freewill offering supporting the organ fund. A small reception will be held in Fellowship Hall following the performance.

NOT JUST CHILI. . . for a Cause

This year the Mission Committee members are making it easy on congregants: we're not sponsoring a competition to determine who makes the best chili. No, no competition, so there's no work.

All you and your family have to do is come to Fellowship Hall and have a great dinner--one with a Mexican flair!

As an added bonus, the committee is pleased to announce that local restaurants, including Steve's Deli, Elsie's Luncheonette, LaCasita, Limoncello, and Delancey's are donating Mexican dishes to enhance this great dinner. Delancey's chili was voted best chili in the last Chili Challenge that was sponsored by the Mission Committee.

A full, satisfying dinner will include a choice of chili, enchiladas, chips & salsa, salads, all the fixings—rice, cheese, sour cream, onions--dessert and drinks—water or soda.

Details:

Date: Saturday, March 3, 2018

Where: First Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall

Time: 5:00—6:30 p.m.

Cost: $10 (drink & dessert included); children between 4 and 11, $5.

So, save the date. Mark your calendars—don't be left out for this nourishing dinner—at a reasonable price.

All proceeds from this fundraiser go to PresbyBuild in Partnership with Habitat for Humanity in Newburgh.

PAY YOUR PER CAPITA ASSESSMENT FOR 2018

Every year, the Presbytery of the Hudson River charges every member church an assessment according to the current active membership. Our recorded active membership is currently 343 and our assessment per member (not per family) for 2018 is $36.83, which is a total of $12,632.69 to be taken from our operating budget. Please assist with this expense and write a check for your family assessment and either mail it to the church or place it in the Sunday offering plate. Thanks for doing your share.

PLEASE SAVE BOX TOPS FOR SCHOOL SUPPLIES

If you do not already save your box tops for anyone, I would appreciate you saving them for me to give to my niece who is trying to get much-needed supplies for her kindergarten classroom in Liberty, or to treat them to an educational program. The box tops can be found on many foods and household supplies such as Progresso soups, Betty Crocker products, Scott paper towels, General Mills cereals, etc. I also will take Campbell soup labels.

I have a box for collection in the back of church by the yarn basket, or you can hand them to me in church.

Thanks so much! Carol Gabella

News from Outreach

New Member Meetings - There will be a meeting on Sunday, February 18 in the Bradner Room (downstairs in the Fellowship Hall). Please get some refreshments at coffee hour and join us. The purpose of this meeting is to share with you, who we are and what we expect from you as a member, and to get to know you and what you expect from us. Those interested in joining the church will meet with the Session on Wednesday, February 28 at 7:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall and you will be received as a member during the service on Sunday, March 4. We hope to make our church family larger.

Prayer Shawls - We have been very busy with sending out prayer shawls. Shawls have gone to the following church family members: Allison Csernai, Richard Paulus, Caryl Swald, Mary Kopec for a family member. Shawls will also be going to Cheryl Zis, her mother-in-law and her husband, Nick. Lisa has given six shawls out to family and friends. We hope that everyone will feel hugged. There were also five baby blankets done for baptisms. If anyone likes to crochet and would be interested in helping to make shawls or baby blankets, in white with a pastel edging for baptisms, they would be greatly appreciated. If you need a shawl for someone, please see either Barbara Hankins, Lisa Montalbano or myself after church. We have them ready to go. I made a blanket for the glider that is in the back of the sanctuary for parents to use when sitting there with their child. Barbara Hankins is making one for the other glider.

Community Dinner - In January, the Elders hosted and we had lots of great food, fellowship and fun. We served 53 people who came out in the cold. In February, the Deacons will be hosting and I know there will be a wonderful meal as well. Please consider coming out for a wonderful home cooked meal and enjoy the fellowship. It is always the second Saturday of each month from 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. and you are always welcome. I have August and September months open. If you know anyone that would consider hosting, please let me know.

Red Books - I would just like to remind everyone to sign the red books. Lisa does an awesome job of keeping track of the attendance. We care about you and if you have not signed in a few weeks and we have not seen you, you may have received a bright post card to let you know we miss you and hope you are ok. If you are sitting near someone new, please encourage them to sign the red register with their address and email if they have one. We would like to send them a visitor letter.

PS: We are always looking for new members for the committee. So if you would like to help with the community dinner, new members, crocheting, advertising for events...so many things, we meet on the second Sunday of the month after church in the parlor.

Thank you and have a wonderful month.

Darlene

Bill Hodges wanted to share this poem with you.

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not shouting, "I've been saved!"
I'm whispering, "I get lost sometimes"
That's why I chose this way."

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I don't speak with human pride.
I'm confessing that I stumble – needing God to be my guide.

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not trying to be strong.
I'm professing that I'm weak and pray for strength to carry on.

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not bragging of success.
I'm admitting that I've failed and cannot ever pay the debt.

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I don't think I know it all.
I submit to my confusion
asking humbly to be taught.

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not claiming to be perfect.
My flaws are far too visible
but God believes I'm worth it.

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I still feel the sting of pain.
I have my share of heartache which is why I seek God's name.

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I do not wish to judge.
I have no authority
I only know I'm loved.
