January 2008

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

An article in the New York Times reported an event that took place awhile ago in the Harbor Gateway section of Los Angeles. Members of a Latino gang were driving the streets with the intention of shooting a black person, any black person, in retaliation for a racial slight. They succeeded. Fourteen-year-old Cheryl Green was sitting near her scooter, talking with friends, when she was killed in a barrage of bullets. Cheryl did know anything about the slight; she was just one more innocent victim of yet one more senseless hate crime.

The shooting occurred just days before January 15, a federal holiday that honors the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr., who was, himself, gunned down in Memphis, Tennessee in 1968. It is a holiday designated to remember the man who said we “must evolve for all human conflict a method which rejects revenge, aggression, and retaliation. The foundation of such a method is love.” The day is designated to honor a dream. For it was Dr. King who once said, “I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character.”

Lately that message seems to have been forgotten. Statisticians report that in Los Angeles in 2005, racial, religious, and sexual orientation discrimination crimes increased 34%. Thirty-four percent! The problem, as we well know, is not only in Los Angeles, but also all over the world. Daily, we hear about violence, destruction, abuse, discrimination, payback, retaliation, revenge, ethnic cleansing, genocide, Jihad, holy war, and the myriad of other terms used in a world with people that just can't seem to learn how to live together.

Although we have come a long way since 1968, we have not come nearly far enough. Maybe it was youthful optimism, but as I was growing up in those years, I truly thought we'd be better at this by now.

I applaud those who have dedicated their lives to improving our ability to live together, but we have to remember that this isn't something we can just watch others do. We, too, have to join in the effort to end discrimination wherever we find it. As Dr. King once said, “Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.” Let us put aside our fear, our uncertainty, and our own prejudices and do our part in uniting our community and our world. I still have hope that God's vision for one world united with equality and justice for all is not just a dream, but a dream that can actually come true.

May God's blessing and peace unite us all.

Pastor Kingsley

Like an unchecked cancer, hate corrodes the personality and eats away its vital unity. Hate destroys a person's sense of value and objectivity. It causes one to describe the beautiful as ugly and the ugly as beautiful, and to confuse the true with the false and the false with the true.

The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

JANUARY ALLOWS THE LIGHT OF CHRIST TO GROW IN OUR HEARTS

We received the light of Christ on Christmas morning. His incarnation is complete. Our task now, as we move into the new year of 2008, is to allow this light to grow in each of us, to bring it forth into the world, and to illumine our paths as we live each day. Can others see the light of Christ in us? How can we make a difference in others' lives? How can we bring forth peace in our fractured world?

In Judaism and in Christianity, a white dove is generally a sign for peace. Noah released a dove after the Great Flood in order to find land. The dove returned, carrying an olive branch in its beak, telling Noah that the flood had receded and that there was land once again for man. The dove in flight bearing an olive branch is a motif representing "hope for peace" and even a peace offering from one to another, as in the phrase "extend an olive branch." Often, the dove is represented as still in flight to remind the viewer of its role as messenger of peace. How can we, as Christians, be messengers of peace to a broken world? Can we bear the olive branch and extend it to others? This Christmas gift from God, the gift of His Son, comes with a responsibility. Let us reflect on what we can do to live peace, to be peace, and to spread peace in our everyday lives.

We move through January with the celebration of Epiphany, a feast day on which we commemorate the coming of the Magi to present their gifts to the Christ child. They recognized his divinity and responded with gifts. Can we do no less in response to the birth of Christ in our hearts?

Our ministry of music program continues as we live through the darkness and cold of winter. We sing our way through the winter, bringing joy and lifting spirits as we come together in our corporate worship on Sunday mornings. We hope you will be there to support the choirs with your presence as we lead the congregation in song and combine our voices in making a "joyful noise."

Robert Clooney
Director of the Ministry of Music

JOIN ME IN PRAYER FOR A NEW YEAR FILLED WITH PEACE AND GOODWILL TO ALL

BIBLE STUDY

Our morning Bible study group will be starting up in the new year on Tuesday, January 8, at 10:00 a.m.

We're beginning the year with the Book of Isaiah, who was one of the greatest of the Hebrew prophets. He lived in Judah in the 700s B.C.

You're welcome to come anytime, whether you've read the passages or not. If you have some free time and would like to learn more about the Bible, just show up! No long-term commitment is required. If you are interested in joining us, please speak to Pat, and she will order a study guide for you.

We meet the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in the parlor from 10:00 a.m. until 11:15 a.m.

UPCOMING YOUTH GROUP EVENTS

PLEASE LET ME KNOW IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO PARTICIPATE!

January

We could go bowling or do anything the teens would like to do! Let's get our heads together and go to a movie or a concert...

New York City

- Monday, February 18 (President's Day)

Our annual city excursions have always been a blast! We'll leave from the Middletown train station early in the morning and enjoy a variety of sites, depending on the wishes of the kids. I will do research for museum events happening around town. We are offered free, all-day game cards and a discounted lunch from ESPN ZONE. This Disney-owned, large-scale restaurant in Times Square has an entire floor of electronic, video, and hands-on sporting challenges, as well as large, quality screens for sporting-event viewing. My husband, Dave, is the GM there, enabling the kids to have a safe home base in the city.

Other spring events will be planned as the year progresses. Stay tuned!

Thank you in advance for your support. Please let me know if any 7th – 12th graders have not been notified of this program. This is a large group, so it is very helpful anytime you call me to let me know that your students want to come. (I do not need a call if they are not participating.)

CALL ANY TIME OF DAY OR NIGHT!

PW Dinner

The ladies' dinner at the Lakeville Inn on December 3 honored our "church sister" Carol Coon. The wonderful evening was filled with good food, great conversation, a fine program, and fun fellowship. Approximately fifty ladies attended. Several door prizes were awarded, and an ornament exchange had everyone trying to keep her right and left hands coordinated. Thanks to all who helped in setting up the evening.

Slate of Proposed Officers for 2008...

Toni Neidel of the Nominating Committee has turned in the following slate of proposed officers for 2008:

| | |
|--------------------------|---|
| President: | Barbara von Pentz |
| Vice President: | Betty Lobb |
| Secretary: | Wendy Paffenroth |
| Corresponding Secretary: | Fran Hoffmann |
| Treasurer: | Helen Gardellis |
| Caring: | Doris Weinberger-Chairman Dorothy Sevcik |
| Food & Feasts: | Nancy Mason – Chairman Wendy Paffenroth, Evelyn Kromm |
| Publicity: | Wendy Paffenroth |
| Church World Service: | Dorothy Sevcik - Chairman Jean Strong, Fran Hoffmann, Carolyn Keller |
| Flowers: | Carol Coon, Barbara Hankins, Jean Strong |
| Nicean Circle: | Fran Hoffmann |

All women in the church are considered part of this association, and no matter what you can do for us, we gladly accept any help. The help can be as simple as baking a cake for a cake sale or packaging Christmas boxes. Don't be afraid to come forward anytime during the year and pitch in when we have something going on.

Installation will be in the near future. Thanks to all who volunteered for a position. There are some very big shoes to fill, and we are sincerely grateful to all who held positions for so many years. We pray that we will do the jobs to the best of our abilities.

The next meeting is Monday, January 7, 2008 in the church parlor at 7:30 p.m. Please join us and find out what we have planned for the new year.

Thank you,

Wendy Paffenroth
Acting Secretary

2008 OFFERING ENVELOPES

Please don't forget to pick up your 2008 offering envelopes in the Narthex. If you don't find a box with your name and you would like envelopes, contact Nancy Smith at 360-5082.

PER CAPITA ASSESSMENT

Every year the Presbytery of the Hudson Valley charges every member church an assessment according to the current active membership. Our recorded active membership number is currently 337 and our assessment per member (not per family) for 2008 is $26.00, which is a total of $8,762.00 to be taken from our operating budget. Please assist with this expense and write a check for your family assessment and either mail it to the church or place it in the Sunday offering plate. Thanks for doing your share.

(In 2007, the per capita assessment per member was $19.99 for a total of $6,436.78 to be taken from the operating budget. $2,598.69 was received.)

EXTRA MILE GIVING TREE

Our Extra Mile Giving Tree still stands in the Narthex and continues to be a great source of giving opportunity for many of our members and friends. Check out the Giving Tree located on the table by the front entrance and make your donation toward a special project of your choice. There are envelopes beneath the tree and can be used to either mail back to the church or place in the offering plate. Thanks for you support.

From the Superintendent

Thank you all for a great two and a half years.

Let me first say that I have the greatest respect for all of the dedicated Sunday school volunteers. I said that when I started as the superintendent, and that respect has continued to grow ever since. You are truly special people.

I want to thank you all for your efforts, patience, and support. Most of all, I want to thank my husband, Tom. He has been my partner throughout this adventure; he's been a real trooper. I could not have done this job without him.

Now, let me tell you about how valuable my experience has been. As Sunday school superintendent, I have been privileged to spend Sunday mornings with the most beautiful and amazing people: our children.

Kids don't yet know they can't do a lot of things—so they just do them; they move forward and improvise. In the face of mistakes, kids choose to smile. When carefully orchestrated routines fall apart, they adapt. If someone stumbles and falls, they just pick him or her up.

While we do have some truly talented children, those who didn't know they could act do so. Those with ordinary musical ability sing out boldly. Young performers, lacking any comedic training, have us rolling in the aisle. Often, it's done unintentionally.

Observing these creatures, I come away with some insights about living my life:

- When things don't go as planned, giggle. Life has a way of disregarding the rules, and we're really not in charge of much, anyway.
- Don't be constrained by the judgments of others. Generosity of spirit trumps a lack of genius every time.
- Others may recognize your talents before you do; listen to them. We are often blind to, or discount, our own gifts. Necessity may be the mother of invention but it's also the mentor of hidden talents.
- Mistakes make for new and entertaining opportunities. Wouldn't life be boring if everything worked right the first time?
- Performing with others is better than stealing the spotlight. When our talents mix with those of others, a true performance takes place, and the spotlight is big enough for everyone.

I am pleased that I had the opportunity to serve our Sunday school. To work on something that I truly care about has brought great satisfaction. But it is time for me to regain my personal life and focus my energies where they are most needed: here at home. I thank you all. It has been a great ride!

The Souper Bowl

FEBRUARY 3rd

On Super Bowl Sunday tens of millions of people will enjoy the warmth of friendship and the satisfaction of food and drink while watching the Super Bowl football game on television. Unfortunately, at the same time, countless other people will feel cold air against their flesh and hunger within their stomachs.

An effort has been born that seeks to transform the Super Bowl into a “Souper Bowl” for the needy. The “Souper Bowl” is a unique interdenominational effort to glorify God and care for our brothers and sisters in need.

Here's how it works: please give one dollar & one canned good as you leave worship on the weekend of the Super Bowl.

Youth from your congregation will collect the money and canned goods and then send the contributions DIRECTLY to the Goshen Ecumenical Pantry. Congregations across the nation are then asked to call “Souper Bowl” headquarters with the results of their efforts so that totals can be promptly determined and released. (Please call John Strobl at 294-9004 with your totals; he will report the totals to the “Souper Bowl” headquarters for the Food Pantry).

Here's some background: the effort began in a Columbia, SC church in 1990. That year $5,700 was raised in Columbia. Last year 14,399 congregations across the nation raised $8,128,737.00. The Pantry raised $2,194.43

Please join in partnership as we seek to Love the Lord our God...and Love our neighbors... in this simple yet significant way.

THE SANTA BREAKFAST: A HUGE SUCCESS!

On behalf of the Santa Breakfast Committee, I want to thank the many people who came to help on December 1. Trying to mention everyone is next to impossible, so I will just highlight the weekend.

Friday night was an evening of pulling out last year's decorations and wondering "where did we put this and that?" Those that came worked long and hard on getting Fellowship Hall, the North Pole Gift Shoppe, the kitchen, and the Santa area of the sanctuary ready for our visitors, who would arrive early Saturday morning. We were blessed with good weather as well.

How we loved the smiles on the little children who were in awe of the morning. Many even noticed that Santa had a wife working with him and a second Mrs. Claus at the gift area. Everyone enjoyed the morning, and even though there were some glitches with the printer, most of our guests were patient and understanding.

The face-painting went well as did the Girl Scouts helping with the crafts. We had elves pitching in all over the place, from clearing tables, to cooking, to checking people in, to playing the piano, to wrapping presents, to serving, to taking out the garbage, to cleaning up the Fellowship Hall. All was done by early afternoon so that some of the men that helped got home in plenty of time to catch some college football.

We may make some changes in the way we do things next year, and your ideas are valuable to the committee. Thank you all for being a part of this day and, most of all, for helping so many families make a very special memory with their children. You all know who you are. We hope we can count on you again in the future.

Thanks again!

Darlene Bartley and the Santa Breakfast Committee

NEWS FROM OUTREACH / FELLOWSHIP

Please mark your calendar for our next fellowship dinner that will be held on Friday evening, January 25, at 6:00 p.m. The name of the restaurant will be announced shortly.

SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES!

Come join us for a night at the movies that naturally includes—what else?—hot, freshly popped popcorn! The date is Saturday, January 19, and it starts at 6:30 p.m.

Bring blankets to sit on and, if you wish, a bag dinner or other snacks. Popcorn and beverages will be supplied. And don't forget to bring the kids!

The title of the movie will be noted in Sunday's bulletin when the date draws near.

NEW MEMBER BRUNCH AND BREAKFAST

A new member brunch is scheduled for January 13 after the service, and a new member breakfast will be held on January 20 at 8:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. All elders please mark your calendars so that you may join us for the breakfast.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Attention All Chairpersons of Upcoming Events...

I have agreed to take the reins in advertising for church events. If you have an upcoming event in the church, please fill out a public relations form six weeks prior to the event and give or e-mail it to me. Extra forms will be available in the church office.

If you know the address of a place that would like to receive notice of our events, please let me know. Even though the information gets to the papers, radio, etc. a month before the event, we are still at their discretion as to whether it gets published. We will, however, try to get more visible in the future. Thank you for your help.
