March 2008

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Not long ago, I had a conversation with someone that said she was surprised to hear that the New Orleans Mardi Gras celebration was connected with Lent; she didn't see how that was possible. So, since we are now in the season of Lent, I thought we might review how all this works.

First, we need to remember that the Christian seasons are not biblical; the church created them many years after the apostles took to the highways and bi-ways to create the Christian movement as a way to mark the major events in Jesus' life. Although not strictly "original," Lent, a forty-day period before Easter (not including Sundays), has a long and detailed history. Lent is a time of reflection on our sins, penitence, prayer, and remembrance of the passion, death, and purpose of Christ. This period is often seen as an opportunity to renew our own baptisms, deepen our convictions, and seek to be more faithful to our Lord.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, which was named for the tradition in the First Testament of placing ashes on the head as a sign and symbol of repentance (sack cloth and ashes). Receiving ashes during the time of Lent goes back to the very early church. Traditionally, the ashes are from the palm fronds used the previous Palm Sunday. The sign of the cross is a symbol of sorrow as we meditate on Christ's sacrifice, a reflection of our own nature, and a mark of our frailty and need of God.

So, what does Mardi Gras have to do with all of this? Over the years, new traditions formed in the church. One of these traditions called for everyone to confess his or her sins on the day before Lent so he or she would be properly prepared to begin the season. In England, confession was also called shriving, and on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, many churches would ring the "shriving bell" to remind the faithful to go to confession. That is why the day before Lent is called Shrove Tuesday.

Shrove Tuesday is also called Fat Tuesday because of other traditions that emerged. Lent was seen as a time of physical and spiritual penitence, humility, and sacrifice. Therefore, within the Catholic Church, Lent became a time of purification and physical abstinence from all things luxurious. Clothes were mended, houses and kitchens were cleaned out and purified of the past year's accumulations, and all "luxury" food had to go (including meat, fish, eggs, milk products, and fat). Since people didn't want to waste all that tasty food, Shrove Tuesday also became Fat Tuesday, celebrated with great feasts during which all those fattening products could be consumed and used up. Pancakes and meat were often served because they incorporated many of the "had-to-go" ingredients.

As the feast day of Fat Tuesday grew, games and festivities were added, turning the meal into a huge event called "Carnival." It didn't take long for the celebration to extend beyond a one-day event, and it grew to become the carnival season it is today, stretching from January 6 (the twelfth night of Christmas) until Ash Wednesday and the start of Lent. Whether it's observed on one day or for a whole season, the celebration is a worldwide party and has various names like Carnival (carnival in Portuguese, made famous in Rio de Janeiro), Fastnacht/fasnacht (feast night in German), and Mardi Gras (fat/grease Tuesday in French, made famous in the French quarter of New Orleans).

Well, there you have it. That's why a great number of churches have pancake dinners on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday and why we place ashes on our heads on Ash Wednesday.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Kingsley

MARCH—LENT CONTINUES INTO HOLY WEEK AND RESURRECTION

In March, we continue our Lenten journey for the first two Sundays, still reflecting upon our lives and changes we might need to make as we prepare for Holy Week and Easter. In our daily meditation, we are still mirroring the reflective time spent by Jesus as he fasted in preparation for the agony of the Cross.

On Palm Sunday, our chancel choir invites you to follow them on a Lenten Journey— from Jerusalem to Calvary. I have written a guide that will lead us on a journey together. We begin with Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. We then follow his steps through Holy Week and his ultimate death. Our journey begins with a festive Procession of the Palms followed by the anthem "The Messiah Has Come." Then, midway into our service, the tone shifts to a more somber one as we begin to reflect on the events of Holy Week.

We know the story well, but I want us to think about our response to what we witness. One of our anthems is "Before the Cross of Jesus" (however, we are used to singing "Beneath the Cross of Jesus"). This anthem removes us from the scene as observers and asks us to stand before the cross and respond. Given what we see, what do we do about it? How does this act of Jesus change our lives?

Expanding on this theme is the plaintive "Father, Forgive Us" as our shortcomings are brought before our eyes and we plead for forgiveness. It asks us to identify with his suffering and live as if it mattered. Finally, our journey comes to a close with a spirited "Mary, Don't Listen to the Hammer Ring." We can leave on an uplifted note as we look forward to Easter.

For those who are able to get out, please join us for the Maundy Thursday and Good Friday services. Yes, it is a somber time, but it gives us the space to move into and share in the sufferings of our Lord as we recall his passion, death, and resurrection on our behalf. This can be a special time of response on our part in gratitude for our salvation.

Please join us on Easter Sunday as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, the foundation and heritage of our Christian faith. We always have an expanded congregation with music and flowers filling the sanctuary. We assemble all our musical resources to make this a beautiful time of worship and music befitting this celebration.

Christ's suffering and death and how it teaches us to live and love.*

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

It may be the “bleak mid-winter,” but volunteers are needed to serve as greeters and lay readers. Please sign up on the sheets that are to the right of the center door in the narthex, or call Bruce Crandall at 651-1483. A greeter is responsible for being in the narthex around 9:30 a.m. on Sunday to welcome parishioners as they arrive for the service. A lay reader can usually obtain the materials from Pat by mid-week so that he or she may become familiar with that part in the service and practice the occasional strangely-named place or person from the First Testament.

-----News & Notes-----

The ladies met on Monday, February 4. Everyone in attendance decided that the bake sale raffle, which was held after church the day before, was a success. The raffle brought in $117 toward the spring installation of the carpet in the church offices. We thank all the bakers. There were some outstanding, "super" desserts for that evening's Super Bowl parties. Ideas about possibly doing a "casserole raffle" were also discussed. The winners of this raffle could have a night off from cooking. More on this in the future...

Several greeting cards were signed and sent to the members of the congregation that needed a bit of cheer. If you ever hear of someone that might enjoy receiving a card (such as "Get Well," "New Baby," "Congratulations," etc.), tell Fran Hoffman or drop a note in the office and we will get the information. Many of our cards are handmade, and we try to have everyone at the meeting personally sign them or write a little note on them.

Calling all stitchers! If anyone in the congregation likes to sew but cannot attend our meetings, let us know. Dorothy Sevcik will be getting together some sewing (usually the trim on baby flannel, hospital-type gowns, or blanket edgings) for Church World Service. Believe me—sewing is quite simple and even enjoyable to do, but the more of us who sew, the more we can contribute to this worthwhile cause. We will be starting this project shortly.

Barbara von Pentz thanks all who helped with the January Presbytery luncheon. There were many great compliments that day, and we couldn't have looked so good or done so well without the help. We thank everyone that came and supported us in any way.

World Day of Prayer will be held in our sanctuary on Friday, March 7. Information will be spread among our congregation by the time this reaches your mailbox.

We hope that you will place an Easter lily in the sanctuary for our Easter celebration on March 23. Lilies are placed in memory or honor of someone dear. Forms will be in the bulletin weekly. You may place more than one. Please help us make our sanctuary beautiful again this Easter.

At the meeting, the ladies decided on a "Baking Basket" for our donation to the Tricky Tray fundraiser, which will be on April 13. Since we are the Queens of Bake Sales, we thought this might be appropriate. We have a big, beautiful baking book for the center of our basket, and we are asking any lady in the church that would like to donate something (e.g., a bottle of extract, a container of spice, a set of dishtowels, a spatula, etc.) to give it to Barbara von Pentz, Betty Lobb, or Wendy Paffenroth by the first Monday in April. Let's do a great big basket that will be fun to win.

Our next meeting is on March 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the parlor. Come out and join us for a fun evening.

Respectfully,
Wendy Lee Paffenroth
Secretary

ABOUT WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

World Day of Prayer (WDP) is an annual, worldwide ecumenical movement of women of many faith traditions. The women come together to observe a common day of prayer on the first Friday in March. Each year, a different country serves as the writer of the WDP worship service. For 2008, the WDP Committee of Guyana developed the theme "God's Wisdom Provides New Understanding." This year's service will be held on March 7 at the First Presbyterian Church at 1:30 p.m. Women of all churches are invited. There will be refreshments following the service.

DON'T MISS THE BOAT

The Balmy Bahamas Cruise (Murder Mystery Dinner Theater) is set to depart on Saturday, April 19, from Fellowship Hall. A wonderful dinner of chicken marsala with all the trimmings will be offered, along with some great tropical drinks. Tickets are offered on a first come, first served basis and are only $25 each. April 10 is the deadline for buying tickets, which can be picked up at coffee hour or at the church office. The cruise will have a variety of "local talent." Seating on the deck is limited to the first one hundred paid travelers, who are in for one wild evening. Get away for an evening on the Balmy Bahamas Cruise, and don't forget to wear your cruise wear. Get your tickets now. If you have any questions, please see Chairperson Darlene Bartley.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

After church on January 27, the Times Herald Record interviewed the Prayer Shawl Ministry while we crocheted. At that point, we had probably given out about thirty shawls and over thirty lap robes since we started in September. By the time you read this, we should have given out close to one hundred. We hope the newspaper article will appear before you get this Tower Tie.

We had a shawl presentation in church on February 3 during the service. We surprised Deb and Jon Hourahan with our first, white wedding shawl; the couple was wed in our church in December of 2007. The surprise was on us, though, as only Deb was present; Jon was home "getting better." They sent us a lovely thank-you note that will eventually go into the Prayer Shawl Scrapbook with the other notes that we received. That morning, we also presented several other shawls, including four to Orra Wood for residents in her assisted-living home. An additional six shawls were given out the next night after the PW meeting.

Baby shawls will be given to the children that are baptized in our church. If you know of an upcoming baptism, please tell our shawl group so we can make a prayer shawl for the infant.

Each shawl is unique in that many of us do not use patterns and simply let the shawls grow from our "hooks." The colors we use have been very different as well. We have a wonderful time with each Other and are a multi-generational group. Each person has contributed so much, and we are growing in number. When we started, we had just a handful of crocheters. Now, we are closing in on fifteen or more. Even some neighbors of some of the ladies have contributed to our "box of shawls."

The prayers and meanings of the shawl colors are in folders with the extra shawls, which are located in the gift room above the office. If you need a shawl or a lap robe (which is more of a square size, often used by a sitting person), please do not hesitate to take one. Just leave us the names of who you are and for whom you took it. You see, we have begun a journal of sorts. Dave Paffenroth bought and donated a journal to our group so that we can keep track of our efforts and how far our outreach has gone. When full (years from now), our journal will be given to our church as a legacy of our group.

When you begin spring-cleaning and come across some yarn you no longer need, please think of us. We take all types, big and small amounts. Mention this to your neighbors as well. We would like to start a "Yarn Drive," as each shawl can cost close to $20 to make, depending on the type of yarn that is bought. Donations of yarn are cheerfully accepted.

Come and join us after church on Sundays from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. We usually meet in the parlor but have been found working away in Fellowship Hall or even in the sanctuary. We meet wherever space is available. Beginners are more than welcome. Come and learn the art of crocheting, and make something that will be a blessing to another person.

If you have any questions, see Darlene Bartley or any of the ladies that are busy with those crochet hooks.

Tricky Tray Event

Several people came forward and told the Tricky Tray Committee that they plan to donate baskets. (“Thank you” in advance.) However, we need many, many more. Lori Turner has done an outstanding job; she’s been going to businesses and gathering gift certificates and items for the day. Even some of the organizations that use our church for meetings have started bringing in containers with items.

Please get together with a few of your friends and donate a basket. It is even great to donate one from your family. You can put a “Donated by...” tag on your donation, and you can also give your basket a name (such as “Movie Night,” and the basket might include a DVD or two, some popcorn, and other snacks). Let your imagination go wild. Pick a theme and run with it.

Presbyterian Women (PW) will be doing a “Baking Basket” (quite appropriate for those ladies behind the bake sales). They are asking each woman of the church to donate one item for the basket. The item can be as simple as a bottle of vanilla extract, a set of measuring spoons, a set of tea towels, or even a baking dish. The items will go into one nice basket.

We are hoping you will come up with some unusual items. We also hope that you will spread the word so that people will save the date of Sunday, April 13. The Tricky Tray will begin at 1:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. This is a fundraiser for “Outreach.” Darlene Bartley has once again volunteered to chair this event and would welcome any church member who would be willing to help her.

We are also gratefully accepting donations of new items, ribbons, bows, and clear wrap in which we can put those wonderful prizes. If you have anything to donate, give it to Darlene at coffee hour or bring it (marked for the Tricky Tray Committee) to the church office.

Thank you in advance for making this Tricky Tray another successful fundraiser for our church.

MARCH IS COLORECTAL AWARENESS MONTH

Over 90 percent of all colon and rectal cancers could be prevented if everyone followed the American Cancer Guidelines and went for testing (screening) when it was deemed necessary. This is because most colon and rectal cancers start as a small polyp (abnormal growth) that takes years to grow and possibly cause cancer. Not all polyps are cancerous, but only after having them removed and the tissue analyzed can one know if they were “bad” or not. Most times, the removal of the polyps will be the only treatment necessary; the interval between repeat screening will be determined in part by whether or not polyps were present.

For most people without a family history of colorectal cancers or inflammatory bowel disease, testing should begin at age fifty. For those with risk factors, screenings are usually recommended at an earlier age. Speak with your family doctor to determine which testing is right for you and at what age it should begin.

The “golden standard” for detection and removal of polyps is the colonoscopy. This procedure allows a flexible tube with a camera to be passed through the rectum and large intestines. It requires a one- or two-day preparation in order to clean the bowels properly.

For comfort, sedation is given during the procedure. A colonoscopy can be done in either a doctor’s office or in a hospital setting as an outpatient. Usually, a patient can receive heavier sedation if the procedure is done in a hospital setting. A specialized doctor called a gastroenterologist or a colorectal surgeon can perform this procedure, which lasts about ten to thirty minutes. Before scheduling a colonoscopy, one would have to make an appointment to see the gastroenterologist. After examining you and gathering a medical history, the procedure will be explained, the preparation for the colonoscopy will be reviewed, and a date to have the exam will be set. Be sure to bring a list of all your medications to the doctor’s office and on the day of the procedure.

Timely screening prevents most types of colon and rectal cancers from occurring. Get your butt in gear and get going!

Carol Gabella
Mission Committee

P.S. My husband would never go for a colonoscopy, and he is now fighting colon cancer. One cannot wish cancer away; regular screenings of the colon, breasts, cervix, and prostate are lifesaving. Love yourself and go! (All your help, prayers, and support have been appreciated greatly; thanks much!)

PER CAPITA ASSESSMENT

Every year the Presbytery of the Hudson Valley charges every member church an assessment according to the current active membership. Our recorded active membership number is currently 337 and our assessment per member (not per family) for 2008 is $26.00, which is a total of $8,762.00 to be taken from our operating budget. Please assist with this expense and write a check for your family assessment and either mail it to the church or place it in the Sunday offering plate. Thanks for doing your share.

(In 2007, the per capita assessment per member was $19.99 for a total of $6,436.78 to be taken from the operating budget. $2,598.69 was received.)

EXTRA MILE GIVING TREE

Our Extra Mile Giving Tree still stands in the Narthex and continues to be a great source of giving opportunity for many of our members and friends. Check out the Giving Tree located on the table by the front entrance and make your donation toward a special project of your choice. There are envelopes beneath the tree and can be used to either mail back to the church or place in the offering plate. In 2007, $2,750 was given toward special projects! Thanks for you support.

MISSION POSSIBLE NOTES FROM OUR 2/10/08 MEETING

We welcomed new member Donna Totton! Hazing begins in March!

ARMED SERVICES PACKAGES—January's package was sent to Scott Hamilton. No, not that Scott Hamilton. The package was sent to Goshen's Scott Hamilton, who is a member of St. James across the street, a friend of our church, and a donator to the food pantry! February (the shortest month of the year) will see two packages mailed out to our very own heroes, Luke Garofalo-Wade and Carol Gabella's nephew. Both are serving in Iraq.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING—Carol Gabella will be our spokesperson for this project. She will be talking about it on the two Sundays before Easter. Envelopes for cash or checks will be in the bulletin.

LINUS PROJECT—Betty Lobb will attend the Linus workshop and bring three blankets we've collected from church members.

HABITAT & PRESBYBUILD—The committee members and their families will be taking part in the Habitat Walk, which will be held on Sunday, April 27, at Downing Park. This, of course, is open to ALL our church members; we hope you will join us in a wonderful day out. It's a highly recommended activity for families! We also plan on taking the "Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood" tour to view completed houses. It's great to see where our raised money goes.

EQUAL EXCHANGE COFFEE & TEA—Pat continues to sell our specialty bagged coffee, tea, cocoa, and chocolate bars in the office. Our next big event for coffee sales will be Great American Weekend. We will ask that announcements be put in the bulletin to remind people that coffee, tea, and chocolate are available at all times. We continue to keep the coffee hour cupboard supplied with coffee.

FOOD PANTRY—A BIG THANKS TO EVERY MEMBER OF OUR CHURCH!! We collected 261 cans of food and $203! This was double last year's numbers and our best ever. What great support! OUR BEST EVER! (That deserves repeating!)

The temple and our church are responsible for the March 8 breakfast. We'll be serving French toast. We'll also be hosting the community dinner on April 12 (there is no truth to the rumor that we'll be serving leftover French toast). THIS IS NOT JUST FOR THE NEEDY; THIS IS FOR ANYONE IN THE COMMUNITY. BRING YOUR FAMILY. HELPERS EAT HERE, TOO!

FISH DINNER—Lori Turner is looking into the fundraising possibility of having our committee host a fish dinner on a Friday during Lent next year.

MIDNIGHT RUN—We would like to get more involved with the Midnight Run. Ceil and Carolyn will look into the possibility of joining the confirmands when they participate in the run. WE'LL LET EVERYONE KNOW WHEN THIS HAPPENS BECAUSE NO FAMILY SHOULD MISS OUT ON THIS POSITIVE, LIFE-AFFIRMING ACTIVITY. NOTHING HELPS YOU MORE THAN HELPING OTHERS.

BLOOD DRIVE—Carol Gabella will look into the possibility of having another blood drive using the Bloodmobile. Our two favorite Bills, Gruber and Keller, were voted down on having a bat drive in the hopes of seeing the Batmobile.

TRICKY TRAY—Our basket theme is "gardening," and items will be brought to the next meeting. Donna and Betty will put the basket together.

Our next meeting will be after church on Sunday, March 9, in the Bradner room. Celebrate daylight savings time with us. We're the fun group. All are welcome.

FUNDRAISING NEWS

Four major events that will enable us to bring in money for our church and its activities are coming up. With the support of our church family and our community, we will be able to make all of them successful.

The Murder Mystery Theater “Balmy Bahamas Cruise” will be presented in Fellowship Hall on Saturday, April 19, at 6:00 p.m. Tickets are $25 each and are limited to the first one hundred sold. A delicious chicken marsala dinner, with all its trimmings, and an evening of delightful fun await all who plan to attend this event. We are looking for adult actors, kitchen helpers, and volunteers that would like to create a “Love Boat” setting and decorations for Fellowship Hall. Please contact Chairperson Darlene Bartley to let her know how you can help with this activity. Wendy Paffenroth has made attractive promotional flyers for distribution throughout the community or your place of work. You can obtain one of these flyers from Wendy or from Loretta Richner.

This year’s spring rummage sale will take place on May 23 and May 24. Things that you would like to bring to the rummage sale from your spring-cleaning efforts should be brought to the church during the week of the rummage sale and not before; there is no space for storage within the church. Volunteers will be needed for the set-up, the sale on both days, and the clean-up during the afternoon of May 24. Glynnis Jorgensen will once again be chairing this event.

It is time to turn our planning efforts toward Great American Weekend, which will be upon us before we know it. Loretta Richner is seeking individuals that will assume the responsibilities of overseeing the kitchen (purchasing the food and getting people to assist in its preparation) and overseeing the selling of the chicken sandwiches under the food tent (making a schedule for selling and getting people to work). Darlene Bartley has volunteered to oversee the Kiddie Rides.

Plans are also underway to create a cookbook to sell at Great American Weekend and during the various activities that will take place to celebrate Goshen’s Bicentennial. Recipes will be requested from restaurants and from members of our church and its community.

Each one of these activities depends upon the participation and support of a lot of people. Please share your time and talents so that some wonderful fellowship, and money, can be generated for our church!

DINNER AT CATHERINE’S!

A pleasant surprise is coming our way for March! Our Fellowship Dinner Club is getting together at Catherine’s, which is located right on Main Street in Goshen. Catherine’s is happy to have us come, and we’re happy to go, as this restaurant offers some of the best food in the state of New York!

Plan on joining us on Saturday night, March 29, at 6:00 p.m. for an evening of good fellowship, good food, and lots of fun.

Separate checks will be offered, so there’s no need to give money beforehand. If you will be attending, let Geri Corey know by Wednesday, March 26. Everyone is welcome. This is a special night out!

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Confessing Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, guided and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we shall seek to use our gifts through worship, ministry, and mission, to gather the Church in from the world, to continue to nurture one another, to serve a world still broken, and to exemplify through common values and purposes Christian discipleship to the greater glory of God.
