Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Hope, peace, joy, and love are the gifts from having Christ enter our world. Often the first response is that these are unattainable ideals or pie in the sky. But they are spoken of in Scripture and Jesus taught about them. Therefore, perhaps we ought to look at them even though they require very hard work.

Hope, peace, joy, and love don't just happen; we have to do them. They are verbs that describe a living and active faith working in the world—our world—right now, whether we're at work, at home, with others, or by ourselves. There is a tension in this relationship because we have these seemingly huge, wonderful things we long for and we associate them with God and heaven, which gives us that pie in the sky idea, but they seem detached from our daily reality. Yet, we also have the Word made flesh, who, just like you and me, was born of a woman. But he was born into poverty and oppression in a dark manger with smelly hay, and then he was killed. The tension is between the great vision and the tension that Jesus himself enfleshed: fully divine and fully human. Look at all of Jesus' parables and read the same tension told in story.

Our western minds reel at such stretching of "reality." There seems to be a tension that is difficult to resolve. There is the realm of God and there is human reality, but can they exist on the same plain? There is justice and there is mercy, but can you have both at the same time? You can live pie in the sky or you can be realistic, but can you be a dreamer and a realist at the same time? We have set rules to reality, and we don't like to have them stretched or changed, and, yet, that is exactly what Jesus did and does. That is also what hope, peace, joy, and love do. If we saw each of these with as much "reality" as we see fear, anger, anxiety, hatred, and doubt, our world would be a different place. After all, isn't that the whole idea - that the coming of Jesus into the world has changed things? That life itself has shifted because now we see the reality of the hope, peace, joy, and love that he made visible?

So, do we choose peace or dissention? Hope or despair? Joy or fear? Love or hate? What most of us find is that destroying is easier than creating, and therefore we choose the easier path; we follow others into doubt, cynicism, and despair and learn that if we choose peace, we have to work at it. We have to become peace and bring that peace into our community and world. A peace so rooted in Christ's peace that when we are cut off in traffic, yelled at by our boss, suffering in pain, struggling with debt, or anxiously holding a marriage together, we still hold that peace in our hearts. The same is true of hope, joy, and love. How can we give to others unless we have them in abundance, practice them in our very being, and hold them in our hearts?

By the time you read this, Easter will have passed, the wonderful hymns of resurrection will be passed on until next year. Remember, even though the celebration has calmed into the routine of the Christian year, the presence of Christ and his gifts of hope, peace, love, and joy remain. These are gifts we can and must open every day of the year.

Peace is in you,
Pastor Kingsley

May Opens Our Eyes to the World Around Us

It was a joyous Palm Sunday with procession and palm waving, a solemn Holy Week with a new Maundy Thursday service of light, and our traditional Good Friday service of darkness. On Easter Sunday, we rejoiced as a congregation, joining with other Christians throughout the world, in celebrating the resurrection of our Lord. The chancel choir with their cantata, The Cross, and our soloists, Sara Simas and MaryLee Farris, provided us with music that spoke to our souls as we moved from Palm Sunday through Holy Week to Easter. We have lived through Lent and self-examination, experienced the joy of the resurrection of our Lord, and now we move outside ourselves to celebrate the bounty of nature around us.

May brings us flowers, green, and relief from the cold and chill of winter. We revel in the warmth, the breezes against the skin, and a feeling of aliveness. Breathe in the freshness.

May Sundays are part of the Easter season still. Mother's Day is on May 8, and we recognize our Presbyterian heritage plus celebrate the ministry of music on May 29.

Please join us for our Sundays in May as we continue the Easter season. We will lift our voices in hymns and praise, offer prayers for others and ourselves, and listen to the Word of God in reading and preaching. The choir will be there, I'll be there, and we look forward to seeing you as well. And after the service, there is always a great coffee hour during which we connect with our neighbors and fellowship together.

Robert Clooney

MIDNIGHT RUN

The Midnight Run will be on May 29. This run will be what is called a "Brunch Run," meaning that it will be held during breakfast hours at a park or similar venue in New York City. We are going to need people to drive, make and distribute the food and coffee, pack the clothing and tables into the cars, etc. If you can help in any way, please contact Lori Baird after service any Sunday or via e-mail (monkeybusinesslori@gmail.com). A list of needed items is on the desk in the church office, and I will also have some copies of the list in the sanctuary on Sunday. Thank you. Lori

FUNDRAISING UPDATE...

Ticket sales for the art raffle are progressing. The raffle will take place at Great American Weekend, and the days are flying by! If you plan to purchase a ticket, please see Pat in the church office and she will take care of that for you. It would be awesome if one of our members ended up with the original painting! The two prints for the second and third prizes are also beautiful.

Craig Calzaretta, Robert Gould, and I have been making the rounds to talk about the history of Goshen and our church and to provide information about the Tiffany windows and the Harriman Fountain. We have done presentations at the Goshen Chamber of Commerce and the Goshen Rotary Club, and we have a date to meet with the Goshen Lions Club in early May. It's been fun to share this information with community members.

The committee for the October 1 Tiffany Ball has met and plans are underway. I am also thinking about what has to be done for Great American Weekend. Please let me know if you can help out under the food tent on July 2 or 3. Many hands make light work! Thanks!

ANNUAL SPRING RUMMAGE SALE
May 27 and 28, Friday and Saturday
(Mark your calendars now!)

It is that time again—with spring cleaning starting, I am sure many of you are putting away items to donate to the annual church rummage sale. It is possible that maybe your neighbors or co-workers have items they would like to donate as well. The chairperson for the event is again Glynnis Jorgensen. Glynnis would be grateful to anyone who can help with this annual event, as many hands are needed to set up during the week of the sale and also to clean up on Saturday, May 28, in the afternoon.

Remember, items can be brought in from the evening of Monday, May 23 through Thursday, May 26. We need saleable items, no junk. Please do not bring us things just because you don't want to throw them away. Items brought in should be CLEAN, not broken. We cannot sell chipped glassware, toys with missing parts, books without covers, items with missing pieces, or items with frayed electrical cords. We also cannot sell used computers or exercise equipment.

The better the items look, the more money we can get for them, so run those excess dishes through a wash cycle before you donate them, and try to pack items that are similar in the same boxes. This makes it so much easier for those setting up. In the past, we noticed that the jewelry table does well, so clear out that costume jewelry from your jewelry boxes. New and usable items are always welcome as well. We accept toys with all the parts and furniture that is still in good condition.

Watch the bulletin for any last minute information about the rummage sale. Please offer a few hours of your time to this good fundraiser for your church. All church members should be able to donate an hour or two to help. Don't wait for a personal invitation to come. Remember that All HELP is greatly appreciated, and you can bring a friend or coworker, too. Come out and share this fellowship with other church members.

Thank you again.

Hug Happenings

News of the Prayer Shawl Ministry (PSM)

Dear Friends,

The months of 2011 seem to be flying by, and as they do, the “hugs” seem to be flying out the door of our church. For some reason, the need seems to be greater than ever lately. Some of us have gotten a reputation of being “shawl people,” and we are approached at different locations to see if we “might have an extra shawl.” Someone always seems to know someone who can use a hug. For that reason, more shawls than usual were sent out in April. Our wonderful group has been able to meet the demand so far. Of course, we count on you to help. We are always in need of yarn to continue this wonderful outreach, so anytime you want to drop off a few skeins at the church, know in your heart that you have dropped off a potential hug that will wrap someone’s shoulders or drape on someone’s lap to show that we care.

Recently, some of our shawls were sent to a mother with lymphoma, a ninth-grade girl who had serious sinus surgery at Westchester Medical Center, a sixth-grade young lady who has a tumor on her leg bone (it is yet to be determined what kind of tumor), several people who have been diagnosed with cancer, a first-time mother to wrap her with her new son, a caregiver taking care of her parents, a woman who is facing forced retirement a few years earlier than planned, and a first-time grandmother of twins. In the works are several wedding shawls for summer weddings, and we are always trying to keep a supply of blankets for christenings.

Our group is still trying to find a time to get together so we can exchange ideas and learn new patterns. Hopefully, as the weather gets better, we will find a day or a date after church when we can meet. Barbara Hankins and I have both recently taught classes outside of the church. One nurse that I taught was so thrilled with the prayer shawl idea that she made seven of them in a short time to give to some of her long-term patients who have little or no family to speak of. She said the smiles on their faces were great gifts, and she is so excited about learning a new skill. This, of course, made it all worthwhile to me as well.

Remember, if you find the need to send a shawl, we keep extras at the church, along with folders, prayer inserts, gift bags, etc. You may just go and take the one you like from the supply room that is up the stairs from the office.

Thank you again for praying for our group, that we will continue to fill the need. God bless each of you and, until next month, consider yourselves hugged.

Wendy Lee Paffenroth
PSM Secretary

The tailgate party, donated by "Big Dave's Family Bar-B-Q," raised an additional $305 for our church's mission trip to Nicaragua this summer! Thanks to all our volunteers!

The Harriman Fountain

The Good Old Days in Goshen, New York

Anyone who has ever lived in Goshen, or even just visited, will be nostalgic about the perspective of life in Goshen at the beginning of the twentieth century. Back then, the First Presbyterian Church, with its surrounding park, was the focal point and defining structure of the Goshen “villagescape.” Now, First Presbyterian Church in Goshen, in conjunction with The Bethlehem Art Gallery, will be giving you a chance to take home the original painting by renowned artist John Gould. What a wonderful slice of Goshen for your home, not to mention a great investment. Close your eyes and think of your time in Goshen. Whether you’re a third-generation resident or a visitor, the image you’ll see in your mind will be very similar to the one above, with perhaps a lot more traffic in the Village Square! Don’t miss out on your chance to own your piece of Goshen history. Fill out the order form below and return to:
