Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

'Is anything too wonderful for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son.' Genesis 18:14

I rubbed my eyes and looked again, but the scene before me hadn't changed.

When living in Bloomsburg, PA, I had just pulled into a fast food drive-thru and realized the cause of the long line and delay. There was a man driving a tractor ordering at the speaker!

Those of us who've lived in rural areas know tractors on the road are a fact of life. However, just being "the norm" doesn't make them any less irritating if you're in a hurry. Recently, I was in a rush as I followed a tractor down a narrow two-lane road. Once my patience was stretched to its limit, I completely lost it and started yelling, "Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!" Amazingly, my impatience didn't speed up the procession at all.

How many times have I approached God's timing the same way? God rarely operates at a pace that pleases me, and I want Him to hurry, hurry, hurry! I've prayed impatient prayers for a job, for a marriage, for children and even for greater understanding.

Just this week, I found myself reminding God that I have plans...as if he didn't know. There's a dream in my heart that feels like it has an expiration date, so I was asking God to fulfill it quickly, before my bones are too creaky to do what I know he's called me to do.

There was a woman in the Bible who also felt past her prime and had trouble with God's timing. Sarah, Abraham's wife, felt impatient just like I feel impatient. After waiting ten years for the baby God had promised her (Genesis 12:21), Sarah decided to help God hurry. Surely ten years was too long for anybody to wait, she likely reasoned.

So Sarah gave her maidservant Hagar to her husband, and the two of them had a child. Even our modern-day television dramas don't hold a candle to what ensued! It turned out "helping" didn't help, and the promise still wasn't fulfilled.

Fourteen years later, Sarah and Abraham had a visitor who reminded them of God's promise, causing Sarah to laugh out loud and say, 'After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?' Genesis 18:12

Do you hear your disbelief and questions about God's timing echoed in Sarah's? I hear mine. Now, Lord? I thought this would happen years ago. Aren't You just a little late?

God answered Sarah's question in a way that answers ours, too. "Is anything too wonderful for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son." Genesis 18:14

Less than a year later, Isaac, the child whom God had promised 25 years before, was born. God was not late. His timing was perfect. It was Sarah who had been in a hurry, but God called Isaac's birthday "the appointed time."

According to the dictionary, "appointed" means "predetermined; arranged; set." Isaac's birth came at the exact time God had planned all along!

God may seem like a tractor in the road, slowing down our dreams, but He knows the entirety of our story from beginning to end. He also knows how our story weaves into the lives of others. We may be tapping our watches, but He is never late. He may seem slow, but He's always right on time. God Himself holds the appointed time in His hands.

Has God made a promise to you that seems delayed? Has He planted a dream in your heart that has not yet come to pass? You can see I've struggled with impatience too, but let's stand together in confident hope! God is faithful, and we can rely on His perfect timing.

Psalm 130:5, "I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope."

Pastor Kingsley

Music Notes

We're beginning another church year. It feels great! Please consider joining the choir and/or the Emmaus Ringers, our handbell choir. If you would like to share your musical talent with the congregation, please let me know! I'd love to work something out with you.

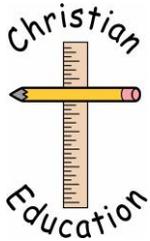

There will hopefully be some concerts this year...if the organ behaves! The 500th anniversary of the Reformation falls on Halloween. I am giving a program at Vassar College on that weekend, and I hope to give an expanded version of it at First shortly thereafter. Come celebrate, and remember that First has witnessed sixty percent of Protestant history. What happens next is up to you.

We need to think about the children, too. Perhaps during this coming year it will be time to begin developing a musical program for this part of our community, too.

It's great to be among you as a musician and a friend. Here's to another great year, and then another...and another...

Jonathan

THANK YOU

I want to thank all of you for your prayers and cards. I felt the love. Every day I'm getting stronger and am staying positive. It will be a couple of months before I am back to myself, but each day is a blessing.

Presbyterian Women's Association

The Presbyterian Women's Association met on September 11th in the parlor to discuss upcoming and past events. Great American Weekend was discussed with a few possible changes to take place next summer.

Our "Moderator," Fran Hoffmann is having a special birthday and her daughter, Heather and family are hosting a special coffee hour/luncheon in her honor on September 17th. Wendy Bynum-Wade updated those present on the details of the event and the women decided how we could enhance the event as a surprise to our beloved friend. We will help set up Fellowship Hall the night before and get something a little special to let Fran know how much we love her.

Happy Birthday Fran and thank you for your dedication to Presbyterian Women.

Jars, 8 oz. (jelly canning) jars and quart jars are needed for the chutney and the chili/soup sale on November 18th at the Craft Fair. If you have any to spare or find some at thrift stores or garage sales, please buy and donate for this good fund raiser for the ladies. Jars can be left by the office with "PW" on the tag or contact Carolyn Keller. Also soup and chili chefs are needed and recipes will be supplied. Everyone is welcome. We truly can use some extra hands the day of the sale as well. Please join us in this day of work, fun, and fellowship.

A letter was received from World Day of Prayer thanking us for hosting the 2017 service and reception in our church. They also were appreciative of the offering that was sent to them. Once again, thank you to all who participated in this day back in March.

A snack of just picked Macintosh and Cortland apples was supplied by Strawberry Hill Farm at the end of the meeting.

Our next meeting is on Monday, October 2nd at 7:00 p.m. in the parlor. Line dancing lessons will start at 6:00 p.m. for those who want to try something new and sometimes exciting. God bless each of you and have a great month.

MIDNIGHT RUN

As we all get back into our fall routines, it's time to refocus on our sisters and brothers who only notice the temperature change as we move from summer to fall. The people we serve are not returning from vacations, working on home improvement projects, or attending family reunions. They are still homeless and can use our help.

PLEASE SAVE THE DATE: Our next Midnight Run will be an evening run on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7th.

As always, the jobs are many; we will need volunteers to:

- help make sandwiches, soup, whatever we're taking to NYC on this next Run
(either Friday night 10/6 or in late afternoon of 10/7)
- donate food supplies (see specific list below)
- donate clothes (think fall) underwear, socks, gently worn hand-me-downs (especially in men's sizes; shirts, jeans, sneakers, light jackets, flannel shirts)
- help organize donations prior to/after each run (the week of 9/25 and 10/2)
- drive to NYC or ride along to help at the various NYC stops October 7th ; leave Goshen approx. 8pm
- and/or to donate $ if you can't help with any of the above or below

Fresh fruit (apples or oranges or boxed raisins (150 count)

We will also need travel size toiletries (shampoo, deodorant, toothpaste/toothbrushes, combs, body wash, washcloths, small tissue packs for men and women)

If you can help with any of the above, please leave a note in collection plate, contact Wendy Bynum-Wade at 845-294-0583 or at wendybynumwade@gmail.com

First Presbyterian membership is NOT a requirement for service; all that is needed is a willing heart to help individuals far less fortunate than any of us. Invite your friends and family members; helping with any of the components of our efforts will satisfy community service hours needed for high school/college (we can provide documentation for any school district). By the way, it's also a great way to have fun while earning a warm and fuzzy feeling for doing something so worthwhile. Members of other churches (or groups within those churches) are welcome and encouraged to join us as well. Why should Presbyterians have all the fun? Many hands will make light work. Please pass the word!

With heartfelt thanks and a grateful heart,

PLEASE SAVE BOX TOPS FOR SCHOOL SUPPLIES

If you do not already save your box tops for anyone, I would appreciate you saving them for me to give to my niece who is trying to get much-needed supplies for her kindergarten classroom in Liberty, or to treat them to an educational program. The box tops can be found on many foods and household supplies such as Progresso soups, Betty Crocker products, Scott paper towels, General Mills cereals, etc. I also will take Campbell soup labels.

I have a box for collection in the back of church by the yarn basket, or you can hand them to me in church.

The church is doing a few new things when it comes to stewardship and one of them is a one minute segment of the worship service called "A MINUTE FOR MINISTRY." Each Sunday during the collection a member of our congregation will be sharing some aspect of the church's ministry they are involved in or what special way the church has touched their lives. What follows is the first of these which we wanted to share with you.

Good morning. My name is Barbara Hankins and I have been asked to briefly tell why I am a member of this church family and why we have stayed through the years. The answer is in the words "church family."

We came to Goshen in the summer of 1966 when George was hired to teach here. I must say that the drive down Main Street through Lawyers Row and the vision of the Church spire really affected me. When we visited First Presbyterian, we were warmly welcomed and invited to join the choir. We have pretty much sat in the same seats in the choir loft for all these years. Through the many joys of raising our four children in this church, our church family celebrated with us. Also, through the hardships and pain that we, like everyone else, have experienced, our church family has been there for us.

Some church family members have moved away, just like in our own family, but they remain a part of the family. Some new church family members have been added and we try to welcome them as we were welcomed.

We encourage everyone to get involved. Really become a part of this living, breathing, sometimes shrinking, but mostly growing church family. Our children used to say that we lived at church and only slept at home. Not everyone needs to go that far, but for us, that was how we chose to serve. The relationships we have formed over the years are forever a part of our lives, much like the relationships we formed at home.

For my birthday many years ago, our children gave me a beautifully framed anonymous quote that fits the ever growing Hankins family but suits our church family as well. *Our family is a circle of strength and love. With every birth and every union the circle grows. Every joy shared adds more love. Every crisis faced together makes the circle stronger.

So, share your joys and let your church family celebrate with you. Share your sadness and let your church family help carry the burden. You will never regret it.

Presentation of Experiences from Nicaragua Mission Trip on October 22nd

Please join us on October 22nd as we share our experiences from our 2017 mission trip to Nicaragua! We will share pictures and stories during the service.

Teen Voices

Thank you to all the people that supported our Cookie Care Package distribution. We hope all our distant and not so distant church family members remember that we care about them!

Our next meeting will be Sunday, October 8th.

Please make sure all the teens are present for the Nicaragua Presentation on October 22nd during service. We believe it is very important for them to see the images and hear the messages from this mission trip. Perhaps they will want to go on a future trip!

All teens grades 7-12 are welcome. We meet in the teen room at 9:30 am.
